

This factsheet has been designed specifically for work undertaken in connection with category 18 and is intended as a guide only. Examples are not intended to be exhaustive and do not include all circumstances or variations based on the specific role and associated responsibilities. If you require assistance translating or interpreting the information in this factsheet, please call the Translating and Interpreting Service (TIS National) on 131 450.

A children's entertainment or party service includes a broad range of situations, however specific exemptions also apply to this category.

Roles considered to be in child-related work

Some examples of roles considered to be in child-related work are listed below. Please note that in all cases, for a role to be considered to be in child-related work, the usual duties of that role must involve, or be likely to involve, contact with a child. The examples provided may also be subject to exemptions.

Roles include:

- staff at an indoor play centre who have contact with children as part of their usual duties
- people providing public entertainment services specifically for children, such as magicians, clowns, or interactive children's characters, if they have contact with children
- people that provide interactive, educative entertainment specifically for children, including school groups, at places of educational interest such as Scitech, museums and national parks
- animal farm staff that attend events specifically for children, such as playgroups and children's birthday parties, and have contact with the children as part of their usual duties
- Father Christmas, other festive entertainers (i.e. elves) and photography staff working as part of a 'Santa's village' who have contact with children as part of their usual duties
- people facilitating children's play programs and holiday activity programs
- people delivering story telling programs for children, such as 'rhyme time'.

Exemptions

The following exemptions apply to this category:

- performances open to the general public, which do not involve physical contact with children, for example people who perform in stage shows at community events or at commercial venues such as Disney on Ice
- services that only provide equipment, food, or a venue, for example people at community or children's events who operate the rides or serve food to children
- unpaid students on placement under 18 years of age
- short-term visitors to Western Australia (WA)
- a parent volunteering in the same activity in which their child participates, or ordinarily participates, refer to Factsheet CRW03: Exemptions, The parent volunteer exemption
- police officers performing functions as a member of the WA Police
- one-off national events or national tours, refer to Factsheet CRW02: Exemptions, One-off national events and national tours.
