Additional Documentation

Your application must include a written submission which outlines each of the following:

1. The mode of transportation (type of vehicle etc.);
2. Operational procedures in relation to the carriage, storage and handling of firearms/ammunition during transportation;
3. Details of probity regime in place for those persons who will have access to firearms/ammunition during transportation;
4. A 'Contact Number for Public Use'; and
5. 'Coverage' details (State Wide, Regional WA, Metropolitan WA or Australia Wide).

You also need to provide an Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) Business Registration.

Policy

There are numerous variables associated with a 'Commercial Carrier Exemption' and as such each application is assessed individually on the information provided. Should your application be approved it may be subject to certain conditions including but not limited to:

- Those persons who will have access to firearms/ammunition during transportation must have a Police Clearance Certificate or be subject to an appropriate probity regime as designated by the employer;
- During transportation firearms must be rendered safe and be concealed or covered;
- Rendered safe includes:
 1. In a locked container; or
 2. In an approved box or container where the firearm is secured with a trigger locking device or has the bolt removed and the bolt is transported separately from the firearm.
- The container or box is not marked that it contains a firearm or ammunition;
- All reasonable precautions must be taken to ensure that the firearm is not lost or stolen during transportation;
- Firearms and ammunition must be transported separately;
- Whilst awaiting dispatch from a depot, warehouse or similar area appropriate storage facilities and processes must be in place to prevent the loss or theft of any firearm or ammunition;
- If a firearm or ammunition is to be stored overnight a separate Warehouseman Approval is required;
- Motorcycles or pushbikes cannot be used for transportation; and
- Unless otherwise approved delivery is only to the holder of a Dealer, Repairer or Manufacturer Firearms Licence.

Declaration

I certify that I am the applicant named in this form and that all information in this application and attachments is true and correct. I have read and understood the contents of this form and its advisory notes. I understand that it is an offence to provide incorrect or misleading information.
