

Application for registration

Building contractor (partnership)

Form 14

Use of this form

This form is for a partnership applying to be registered as a building contractor with the Building Service Board.

Registration as a building contractor entitles the registration holder to carry out building work.

Registration as a building contractor

A person, partnership or company must be registered as a building contractor to:

- be named as a builder on a building permit;
- provide services as a builder for work that requires a building permit, with a value of $20,000 or more and is located within the area of the Board's jurisdiction; and
- use a prescribed title such as registered building contractor.

Nominated supervisor

A building contractor must have a registered building practitioner appointed as the nominated supervisor at all times.

Financial probity

If you have experienced an insolvency event, further information regarding this event may be required. In certain circumstances, the Board has the power to declare a person an excluded contractor from registration as a building contractor on either a temporary or permanent basis.

Financial capacity

The partnership must demonstrate it has the capacity to meet its debts as and when they fall due. It is important that you read the 'Registered Building Contractor - Application Guidelines' document on the Department's website. This document explains the financial requirements for registration and what information you must provide in order to satisfy those requirements.

Building service debt

If your partnership has incurred a building service debt, being an unsatisfied court judgement or adjudication determination that has not been paid, it cannot be registered as a building contractor.

Ineligible person

If a partner of the partnership is currently declared an ineligible person, the partnership cannot be registered as a building contractor.

Excluded contractor

If the partnership is currently declared an excluded contractor (either temporarily or permanently), the partnership cannot be registered as a building contractor.

Duration of registration

Registration is for a period of three years.

Application fee and registration fee

The registration fee is for the three years.

Payment of both an application fee and a registration fee must accompany this application.

GST is not payable on this fee.

The application fee is non-refundable.

If the Board refuses your application the registration fee will be refunded.

Please refer to our website for the current schedule of fees.

Complete your application

Your application cannot be processed unless all sections are completed, all attachments provided and fees paid.

Incomplete applications

The Department cannot assess incomplete applications. If your application is incomplete at the time of lodgement, you will be requested to provide outstanding or additional information. If you do not provide the information by the date stated in the request, your application will be lapsed or refused. The application fee will not be refunded.

Return of documents

The Department does not return documents. If required, make a copy before you submit your form and attachments.

After your form is submitted

If the Department requires further information, you will be contacted.

Registration history

1 Has the partnership or a partner (who is either an individual or an officer of the company, or the company which constitutes the partnership) been refused a licence or registration in the last ten years? Yes No

2 Has the partnership or a partner (who is either an individual or an officer of the company, or the company which constitutes the partnership) had a licence or registration cancelled or suspended in the last ten years? Yes No

3 Has a partner (who is either an individual or an officer of the company, or the company which constitutes the partnership) been involved in court, tribunal or disciplinary proceedings (including remedy orders) in the last ten years? Yes No

If your answer was "Yes" to any of the questions above, provide full details on a separate page and submit with this application. Attached

Ineligible person

If a partner is currently an ineligible person, the partnership cannot be registered as a building contractor. The State Administrative Tribunal will have informed a partner if they have been declared an "ineligible person".

4 Is any partner (who is either an individual or an officer of the company which constitutes the partnership) currently declared an ineligible person by the State Administrative Tribunal? Yes No

Excluded contractor

If the partnership is currently an excluded contractor, the partnership cannot be registered as a building contractor. The Building Services Board will have informed the partnership if it has been declared an "excluded contractor".

- 5 Is the partnership currently declared an excluded contractor by the Building Services Board? Yes No

Financial probity

If the partnership or any of its partners have experienced an insolvency event, you may be required to provide further information about this event(s) in relation to the Building Services Board's power to declare a person an excluded contractor. You will be contacted by the Department if further information is required.

- 6 Is any partner (who is either an individual or an officer of the company, or the company which constitutes the partnership) currently declared an excluded contractor by the Building Services Board? Yes No

- 7 Has any partner (who is either an individual or an officer of the company which constitutes the partnership) experienced an insolvency event* in the last five years? Yes No

An insolvency event for individuals includes bankruptcy, Part IX (Debt Agreements), Part X (Personal Insolvency Agreement) or cancellation by the State Administrative Tribunal on financial grounds.*

If you answered 'yes', identify the partner/officer's current status:

Still bankrupt Discharged Date discharged: / /

- 8 If a company constitutes the partnership, has the company experienced an insolvency event^ in the last five years? Yes No

^An insolvency event for companies includes members' voluntary liquidation, court liquidation, creditors' voluntary liquidation, appointment of an administrator, a Deed of Company Arrangement or cancellation by the State Administrative Tribunal on financial grounds.

Building service debt

If the partnership has a building service debt that has not been paid in full within the specified period (or is not subject to a payment arrangement, or proceedings have not commenced for an appeal or review), the company cannot be registered as a building contractor.

- 10 Does the partnership have any outstanding debts for which judgement has been entered in a court of competent jurisdiction (e.g. Magistrates, District, Federal Court) in connection with a contract for a building service or for the supply of goods or services for a building service? Yes No

- 11 Does the partnership have any outstanding adjudicated amounts that are payable under the Building and Construction Industry (Security of Payment) Act 2021 or the Construction Contracts (Former Provisions) Act 2004? Yes No

The partnership must demonstrate it has the capacity to meet debts as and when they fall due.

The Building Services Board generally requires an applicant to demonstrate access to a minimum of $50,000 in liquid funds (cash or cash equivalent) and have a quick ratio of at least 1:1 to meet the financial requirements.

If the partnership is between natural persons (individuals), each individual partner must complete a personal financial statement on the following page. Alternatively, provide prepared financial statements certified by an independent accountant. The financial statements must be completed within three months from the date of application.

If the partnership includes a company, the company will need to provide current special purpose financial reports prepared and certified by an independent accountant within three months from the date of application. Intangibles such as goodwill, rights of indemnity, intellectual property such as trademarks or patents, formation expenses or borrowing expenses should not be included. Refer to the Application Guidelines available here: www.commerce.wa.gov.au/publications/building-contractor-application-guidelines for more information about the content requirements of the reports.

Copies of any loan agreements, paid up share capital, overdraft facilities etc. will need to be provided as verification and must be in the name of the company only.

Required financial documentation attached.
