*Engineering Qualification Guidelines

Engineering qualifications should be presented to Building and Energy at least at the Bachelors level and above, and listed in the Engineers Australia Accredited Programs list located at:

Engineers Australia Accredited Programs \(engineersaustralia.org.au\)

Note:

The Engineers Australia Accredited Programs list is subject to periodic review by Engineers Australia. Please refer to its website for the latest version.

Engineers Australia is the designated assessing authority for engineering occupations in Australia. If overseas engineering qualifications are presented to Building and Energy outside the Engineers Australia Accredited Programs list, then an Engineers Australia Verification Letter must accompany the overseas qualification.
