

Recognition of early pregnancy loss application

Recognition certificates for early pregnancy loss are available from the Western Australian Registry of Births Deaths and Marriages for babies that are not able to be formally registered under the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1998. A recognition certificate cannot be used for official purposes.

Eligibility

- Your loss took place in Western Australia
- Your loss took place before 20 weeks gestation, or if weeks are unknown, the baby weighed less than 400 grams
- Your treating medical practitioner or midwife must sign the declaration on the application form.

Note

Where the birth falls within the legal definition of a still-born child then the formal registration process must be followed. Parents cannot request a recognition certificate in lieu of formal registration.

Fees & commemorative certificates

Recognition of early pregnancy loss is free. There are two recognition certificate designs to choose from. Please select one certificate type on your application form.
