

State Design Review Panel – Biographies

Patrick Kosky Patrick brings 22 years of significant project experience to the State Design Review Panel. His architectural experience includes Walyalup Koort in Fremantle and the City of Perth Library.

Director

Kerry Hill Architects

He is a presiding member of the City of Fremantle Design Advisory Committee and has served as a juror for the Australian Institute of Architects' prestigious George Temple Poole Award and as a member on AIA juries in 2013, 2015 and 2017.

By making design quality part of the approval process, Patrick believes this will lead to buildings and developments that are sustainable, adaptable, and most importantly, valued by the community.
