

State Design Review Panel – Biographies

---

Dr. Rocio Bona Director Bona & Associates	Rocio is a senior planning and transformation practitioner passionate about asset planning, project initiation and the use of technology to drive sustainability outcomes. She has extensive experience working with large property portfolios, in leading public and private sector organisations both nationally and internationally. Rocio has been involved in the built environment industry for over 20 years gaining a wealth of experience in building design, masterplanning and sustainability across educational, residential, commercial, health and institutional asset classes. She brings a strategic and pragmatic approach to sustainable development, underpinned by a strong academic and technical background with degrees in Architecture, Technology, Carbon Management, and a PhD in Environmental Design. Rocio is a member of the United Nations Association of Australia, a Green Star Accredited Professional and an Associate at Curtin University.
--	---

---